REVISED NW ECO 2008 Tentative Schedule:

7:15-8am: Registration, coffee available

8-8:15am: Opening remarks, ECO Planning Committee

8:15am-9:15am: Keynote speaker, Dr. Melvin Kohn, State of Oregon Epidemiologist

9:30-11am: Three concurrent sessions

90 Minute Symposium: Accommodating Diversity in Research: Methods that Promote Respectful Inclusion of Diverse Populations; Nelms et al.

90 Minute Symposium: Qualitative Questioning of Men’s Experiences as Gendered Beings; Gray et al.

90 Minute Panel: Guilty Except for Insanity; Rempe et al.

11-12pm: Poster session

60 Minute Poster: The process of evaluating legislative standards for Oregon batterer intervention programs; Finney & Mankowski

60 Minute Poster: Social Influences on Drinking Among Japanese College Students; Wendt et al.

60 Minute Poster: Strategies for Enhancing the Recruitment of Iranian-Americans in Community Mental Health Research; Saedi

60 Minute Poster: Implications of positive moods on alcohol abuse prevention; Mohr et al.

12-1pm: Lunch

1-2:30pm: Three concurrent sessions

90 Minute Panel: Evaluating Trillium Family Service’s Proctor Home Program: Building an Effective Partnership between Research and Practice; Solloway et al.

90 Minute Roundtable: Getting into the Psychology graduate program for you: Tips from those who have been through; Boal et al.

90 Minute Interactive Workshop: Using Image Theater to Build Communities of Practice An Interactive Workshop; Gillespie et al.
2:30-2:45pm Break and snacks available

2:45-3:45pm: Concurrent Sessions

Room 1: 60 Minute Talk/Symposium: Insights and experiences gained from a qualitative and community-based research project on indigenous perspectives on sustainability.; Hall et al.

Room 2: 30 Minute Paper: Thru the Lenz: Participatory action Research in Theory and Practice; Goessling & York

Room 2: 30 Minute Paper: Participatory Action Research in Systems of Care for Children with Mental Health Problems; Pullman

Room 3: 30 Minute Paper: PAR Theory into PAR Practice: Developing a New Participatory Action Research Group with Autistic Adults; Raymaker et al.

4-4:30pm: Closing remarks and wrap up.