

Community Psychology Programs

Ph.D. Community Well-Being

Website: <http://sites.education.miami.edu/community-well-being-ph-d/>

AT A GLANCE

Full-time faculty: 8

Full-time faculty who identify as Community Psychologists: 7

Students admitted each year: 4

Available assistantships: Tuition waivers for 5 years and graduate fellowships for 3 years are guaranteed.

THE PROGRAM

The program focuses on training researchers.

FACULTY RESEARCH INTERESTS

- immigration & refugees
- community-based participatory research
- critical community psychology
- well-being
- social justice
- acculturation
- developing culturally effective mental health interventions for people of color
- forensic psychology
- developing assessments & online interventions

M.S.Ed. Community and Social Change

Program Concentrations: Research track

Website: <http://sites.education.miami.edu/community-and-social-change-m-s-ed/>

AT A GLANCE

Full-time faculty: 6

Full-time faculty who identify as Community Psychologists: 5

Students admitted each year: 15

Available assistantships: Fellowships

THE PROGRAM

The program focuses on training practitioners. Graduates from the program are typically employed in education and/or the nonprofit sector.

FACULTY RESEARCH INTERESTS

- immigration
- community organizations
- well-being
- diversity
- racial identity
- criminal justice
- ecology

B.S.Ed. Human and Social Development: Community and Program Development track

Website: <https://sites.education.miami.edu/human-social-developmentcommunity-and-program-development-track-b-s-e-d/>

RadioActive Podcast Episodes

Refugees, Migration, Acculturation and Traumatic Stress – Dina Birman

Surfacing and Shifting Power – Scot Evans

What is Community Psychology? – Laura Kohn-Wood

Dismantling the Caricature of “Other” – Ashmeet Oberoi

The Road to You Know Where is Paved with Good Intentions – Ed Tricket